EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

- 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.
- □ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.
- □ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] ____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

ADDITIONAL CONTRACT CONDITIONS

1. PARTIES: This agreement is entered into on the date shown above and below between Glanzer & Associates, P.C., a debt relief agency and law firm ("Law Firm") and the person(s) assigned to the Client number above-indicated ("Client"). Client has retained Law Firm as attorneys to represent and advise Client regarding bankruptcy matters under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 of the bankruptcy code. Law Firm shall use its best efforts and abilities in representing Client in bankruptcy. Client acknowledges that Client is not retaining Law Firm to appear in any proceedings in state or federal court other than bankruptcy. 2. BASIC SERVICES: Law Firm agrees, in consideration for the fee established in page 1 of this agreement, to provide general legal services in connection with Client's bankruptcy case. General services include, but are not limited to: pre-filing advice; advice during the case concerning the nature and effect of the applicable chapter of the bankruptcy code; preparation and filing of the petition, schedules and statements; representation at the meeting of creditors; taking creditor calls both pre-filing and post-filing; other general services. Other services include submitting information pursuant to requests from the Trustee, and other regular, routine, and customary services not specifically stated. 3. ATTORNEY FEES: Client agrees to pay Law Firm the flat fee, earned upon receipt, court costs, as set forth in this agreement and in the Agreement. Client agrees to timely pay the fee and court costs prior to the filing of the petition. In the event Client wants to convert the case from a Chapter 7 to a Chapter 13, or from a Chapter 13 to a Chapter 7, as the situation may be, Client acknowledges that there will be additional attorney fees for services provided to convert and that there may be additional court costs as well. Conversion of Client's case will require a new agreement and Client agrees that in the event of conversion, any fees due under this agreement may be collected from the Chapter 13 trustee, but will not exceed the combined agreed fees under the two (2) agreements. Client agrees to reimburse Law Firm for any reasonable costs and fees incurred by Law Firm as a result of dishonored checks or dishonored ACH payments. Law Firm will charge at least $50.00 for dishonored checks and/or ACH payments. Failure to pay attorney fees in a timely manner could cause Law Firm, in its sole discretion, to close the client file and terminate services (see Paragraph 5 below). Client agrees that to reopen the case, Law Firm must re-evaluate the case and may charge additional fees and may require Client to provide additional information. Client expressly agrees that fees tendered by personal check may be processed as ACH transactions. 4. NON-GENRAL SERVICES (additional fee(s) apply): Client agrees that Law Firm may charge additional fees at its standard billable hourly rate as detailed in Paragraph 5 below for non-general services. Non-general services include, but are not limited to: Adversary proceedings filed under 11 U.S.C. §523 or §727 (minimum of 4 hours of attorney time paid in advance before appearance is filed); motions to dismiss under §707(a) or (b); actions to enforce the automatic stay pursuant to §362(k); actions to enforce the discharge injunction pursuant to §524; Rule 2004 examinations; deposition; interrogatories; other discovery proceedings (other than initial §341 meetings); contested motions; amendments to creditor schedules ($150.00 + court filing fee); negotiation or signing of any reaffirmation agreement(s), or attending reaffirmation hearings, but does not include advice to the debtor about the reaffirmation process absent a signed Attorney Declaration as contemplated pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §524; delays caused by Client including Client's failure to pay fees in a timely manner, failure to provide information, and/or failure to return paperwork; continued §341 meetings ($150.00) if continued due to Client's failure to appear as scheduled; redemption motions pursuant to §722; redemption and replacement loan review, motions, and related work ($600.00); and motions to avoid liens ($300.00 per motion). Law Firm agrees to pursue any third parties who may be liable for payment of additional fees, but failure of Law Firm to collect fees from a third party does not relieve Client of responsibility for payment. 5. TERMINATING SERVICES: If Client decides to discontinue Law Firm's services at any time, Client must notify Law Firm in writing. Client is only entitled to a refund of unearned fees in the event Client terminates Law Firm's services prior to the filing of a petition. Client agrees that Law Firm will not refund the flat fee if Law Firm has filed a case on Client's behalf and has attended the meeting of creditors even if the case has not completed. If termination occurs prior to filing of the petition, Law Firm shall provide an accounting of time and services and issue a refund check. Law Firm's current hourly rate is $300.00 per hour for attorney time, and $75.00 per hour for non-attorney time for the purpose of determining any refund due. The hourly fees are subject to periodic review and may be increased to be commensurate with the fees charged by other attorneys of similar experience within the field. Client also agrees that Law Firm's services shall be considered terminated upon the following events: closing of the case under Chapter 7 or 13, or dismissal of the case; except in instances where Client seeks Law Firm's services to enforce the permanent injunction (see Paragraph 4 above). 6. CLIENT'S OBLIGATIONS: In addition to paying the attorney fees in a timely manner pursuant to Paragraph II, Client also agrees to perform all of Client's obligations pursuant to §521 of the bankruptcy code; to provide any and all requested information by Law Firm; to make FULL disclosure of all Client's assets, liabilities, and financial information regardless of Client's intentions; not to incur any additional debt after hiring law firm without law firm's and Court's written consent; to notify Law Firm immediately of any change of address, e-mail or telephone number; to cooperate fully with any staff member of Law Firm. Client acknowledges that Law Firm functions as a group practice and that more than one attorney may be responsible for Client's case. Additionally, various attorneys may perform the different tasks associated with Client's case. Law Firm makes no representations or guarantees about the extent of the services provided by the individual attorney Client originally consulted. 7. LIMITED POWER OF ATTORNEY: Client agrees that the signature on this contract also grants a limited power of attorney to Law Firm to: 1) obtain tax information from anyone with whom Client consulted regarding tax preparation or return, or the Internal revenue Service, including but not limited to, copies of Client's tax returns, and/or transcripts, and 2) obtain due diligence products including, but not limited to, real estate appraisals, title searches, asset searches, personal property valuations, and credit reports. 8. SIGNATURE AUTHORIZATION AND COMMUNICATION: Client's signature on this contract shall be authorization for Law Firm to file a bankruptcy petition for Client through the bankruptcy court's electronic filing system, and all other subsequent filings through the bankruptcy court's electronic filing system. 9. RECEIPT OF MANDATORY NOTICE AND DISCLOSURE: The Bankruptcy Abuse and Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 requires Law Firm to provide mandatory notices/disclosures to Client. The Client's signature on this contract is an acknowledgement by Client that Client has received, read, and understood the two (2) separate documents entitled "§527(a) Notice," and "Important Information About Bankruptcy Assistance Services From and Attorney or Bankruptcy Preparer." 10. LAW CHANGES: Client acknowledges that Law Firm is not responsible and assumes no liability for changes in the law that may affect the advice Law Firm gives Client. Law Firm's advice is based on the state of the law as of the date of this contract, and may be subject to change at any time. 11. RESCESSIONS: Client may only rescind a signed reaffirmation agreement by giving notice as detailed in the agreement within sixty (60) days of approval by the court or discharge, whichever is later. Client should also notify Law Firm in writing. 12. CO-COUNSEL: Client authorizes Law Firm to hire co-counsel or independent attorneys and/or paralegals and other support staff as needed, at Law Firm's expense, to work on Client's matter and divide fees with them on the basis of work and responsibility.

I/we acknowledge that I/we have read and agree to the above, and the attorney has answered any questions that I/we have had.

- 7. Foreclosure: If a judgment of foreclosure has been entered before my bankruptcy has been filed, my property may be sold at a foreclosure auction or sheriff's sale. Once my property has been sold, I understand that I have no right to redeem my property under the bankruptcy code.
- 8. I agree not to incur or transfer debt or property before my case is filed and discharged without written attorney and court permission.
- 9. I understand that in order for my case to be filed, all of my tax returns must be filed for the last four (4) years.
- 10. I understand that I must continue to pay any child support obligations and provide proof if required at the end of my case in order to receive a discharge.
- 11. I agree that I may be required to turnover income tax refunds, security deposit refunds or other non-exempt property to the Bankruptcy Trustee. I have been advised by the attorneys at Law Firm that I may own property whose value is in excess of what property I may protect in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, otherwise known as non-exempt property. My attorney has advised me that the Bankruptcy Trustee assigned to my case may liquidate/sell any property that is non-exempt or in excess of my allowable exemptions. Any proceeds from this liquidation will be applied towards my debts. I further understand that I must provide Law Firm with the valuations of all of my assets, including bank accounts, as of the date my bankruptcy is filed. I have further been advised that the Bankruptcy Trustee has the right to conduct his or her own investigation as to the value of my assets and that I must cooperate with the Trustee in this and all other regards. I also agree not to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of my property (whether exempt or not) without my attorney's, Trustee's, and Bankruptcy Court's written permission.
- 12. Chapter 13 payments are an estimate, and may increase if my debts, assets, or other income change, or if my mortgage payments are delinquent before my case is filed
- 13. I have been advised that in a Chapter 13 case, my creditors or the Bankruptcy Trustee may object to my repayment plan if I am paying less than 100% of my debt.
- 14. Chapter 7 discharges and Chapter 13 plans are subject to court, trustee, and creditor approval or objection.
- 15. If I receive notice of a lawsuit or any other legal proceeding, I will immediately notify Law Firm.
- 16. I have been advised by Law Firm that any student loan debt I have is not dischargeable in bankruptcy. Some student loans may be dischargeable if I am able to show that the loan payment imposes an "undue hardship" on me, my family, and my dependents. However, I understand that I would not be able to show an undue hardship as defined by the Bankruptcy Code and case law. Therefore, I have been advised and understand that all of my student loan debt will survive bankruptcy and not be discharged. I understand that I must make payments on my student loans pursuant to my separate contract or agreement with my student loan company. In a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, I have been advised that my student loans will be paid at the same percentage as my other general unsecured creditors. I understand that in a Chapter 13, bankruptcy any remaining balance or unpaid portion of my student loan debt will survive the bankruptcy and I will be responsible for this amount. Additionally, I understand that my student loans will continue to accrue interest during my Chapter 13 Bankruptcy. I agree to hold Law Firm, its attorneys, employees or any persons employed to work on my bankruptcy case harmless from any matter concerning my student loan debt.
- 17. I have been advised by the attorneys at Law Firm that I may own property whose value is in excess of what property I may protect in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy, otherwise known as non-exempt property. My attorney has advised me that the Bankruptcy Trustee assigned to my case may liquidate/sell any property that is non-exempt or in excess of my allowable exemptions. ### UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.
